Time and again Brumble and Crais made long gains by skintackle plays and end runs. Klevesal, former centre, but now playing full back, tore through the Academy's defense with telling effect and for appreciable gains. Baldwin showed his merit on left end, getting every play which came around his side of the line.

One of the most important reports submitted to the synod this morning was that of the committee of systematic benegating the committee of systematic benegating the report included the following interesting statistics: There are now 475 churches in the synod, but nineteen counties in North Carolina are still without a Prespyterian Church witain their bounds. During the year 3,007 members were added to the church, 1,349 on examination, and 1,618 on certificate, 120 swerage salary of the pastors in the synod is 31,000. The total number of Prespyterians now in the State of North Carolina is 49,522.

The moderator appointed five ministers and five elders to visit the Odd-Fellows' Home, located in Geldsboro, as representatives of the synod, the larre amount of business to be transacted by the body preventing the synod from accepting the invitation to visit the home in a body.

Two colored ministers, now advanced in years, retain membership in this synod, and a collection was taken today to supplement the small salary they receive.

The session of the Synod of North Carolina held this evening, was devoted almost wholly to a popular meeting interest of synodical home missions. The reports of the committee revealed the following facts: during the years, under the direction of synodical home missions, three churches have been organized, seven Sabbath Schools have been received into the Presbyterian Church, and $10.252.45 have been received and disbursed, and workers have been paid the balance of $1.000 on a note in bank and the committee is without dobt or discord. The report showed also that the mission fields themselves have contributed some fields themselves have contributed to other causes.
